

Map showing lot of K.C. COBERN and adjoining lots in the Town of Maplesville, Alabama, in section 21, T 21 N., R 12 E., St. Stephens Meridian.

I, B. E. Reed, registered Surveyor 1255, State of Alabama at the request of K. C. Cobern have made a survey of the said K. C. Cobern lot, being lots No. 1 and No. 2 Blk 7 of the McQueen map of the area and a part of the 10 foot alley (now closed) along the South boundary, said lots 1 and 2, and have made the accompanying map showing the said K.C. COBERN lot with adjoining property, and especially showing correction in the Dr. Day lot under Note "B" below.

Explanatory detail: Variation being 3° 30'

Note "A". A 7/8" rod on gutter line being the corner common to the lots of the Baptist Church and the Bank of Maplesville. Said rod being 11.4 feet SW from the corner of the bank building and 62.5 feet NW from the corner of the SHANK brick building.

Note "B". A 3/4" galvanized iron pipe being the ^{corner} common to the lots of the Baptist Church, the K.C. Cobern, and Dr. Day and said pipe being 8.4 feet N 58° 20' W from a pipe incorrectly set for the corner of the Dr. Day lot.

I, B. E. Reed, as such surveyor, do hereby, certify to the accuracy of the survey and map this day of October, 1952.
