Foreword

The Yearbook of Maplesville School, "The Vista", has reached the time for its tenth edition. During these ten years our school has changed as times have changed but the same school spirit (the feeling for "Ole Maplesville") remains steadfast and true.

This issue of "The Vista" presents a view of classes, administration, organizations, athletics, and activities of our school--a glimpse of the training of students who enjoy the present to the fullest and look to the future with confidence.

Dedication

The faculty of Maplesville School is composed of men and ~~woemn~~ of the highest moral rank who have given faithful service to our community for years. Their unquestionable character, their kind understanding of the student problems, and their untiring efforts to better the school in general have won the respect and esteem of the student body.

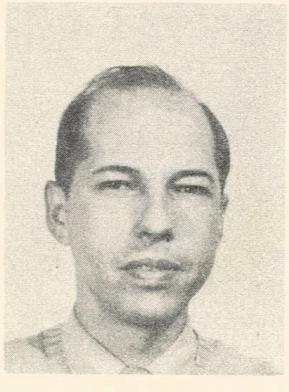

As an acknowledgment of their unselfish contributions to the lives of the students and to the community, we, the Senior Class, respectfully dedicate this tenth issue of The Vista.

Class History

Twelve happy years ago Mrs. Louise Chambers was either proud or disappointed with a group composed of Juanita McAfee, Jeanette Dennis, Barbara Morgan, Louise Lawrence, Betty Lovelady, Hugh Morgan, J. W. Bone, and Walter Taylor. From the very first day of school we knew we would love our teacher who had so much patience with us.

The same group was in the second grade where our teacher, Miss Maude Johnson, remembers us as one of her roughest classes.

When we reached the third grade we were happy to take into our class, Violet Branhill from Jemison, and Augusta Lawrence. I'm sure Mrs. Fannie Cummings enjoyed our little love affairs.

To our sorrow we lost two more of our classmates, Juanita and Walter in the 4th grade. With Mrs. Annie Owens' help, we can proudly say we lived in one clean class room.

We welcomed Mary Jane Waldrop, Vestelle Wright and Darlton Davis into the fifth grade with us. Mrs. Virgil Nell Smith had to be on her P's and Q's to keep us from fighting. Wonder if she was glad to see us promoted to the sixth grade?

In the sixth grade we calmed down a little because Mrs. Daisy Littlejohn was handy with her leather strap. We were glad to have Juanita McAfee and Walter Taylor back with us.

I'm sure Mrs. Robert Gay can remember the seventh grade. That's where we got so much practice in writing. (I must not talk).

In the eighth grade we were just at the foot of "Fool's Hill." Ask Mr. John Herrod if we got over it before we left his room.

We were glad to have Donald McGee to enter our class in the ninth grade. With Mr. MacPherson as our teacher, we feel like we learned as much cattle raising as we did math.

In the tenth grade our class slightly increased. Stanton sent to us Millie Grover, Fay Harris, Darlton Davis, Billy Harrison, Kirby Burnett, Horace Harrison, and Robert Hayes. Junior Ratliff came from Vermont. The two groups finally accepted each other as one class with the help of Mrs. Dorothy Daniel.

In the eleventh grade Jemison sent to us Marie Smith and Billingsley sent William Davis. We were glad to have this addition to our class. Wonder if Mrs. Bee Cobern was proud of her large algebra class.

The day finally came when we were Seniors. Dignity in our group was lacking but time changed us. We realized our responsibilities. We also appreciated the patience of our home room teacher, Mrs. Georgia Billingsley.

Class Prophecy

As I was driving through Dallas, Texas, on my way to Florida for vacation, I had my convertible top laid back taking life easy. A car came up behind me and blew the horn, and I just happened to glance in the mirror, and saw none other than Vestelle Wright and Fred Cox taking the long way to Mississippi. Well, as you know, things happen like that. I was stopped in Louisiana for a red light when I recognized a girl on crutches—Millie Grover was still hunting Frank. I was beginning to get thirsty so I stopped at the bus station for a coke. Just as I went in, I happened to see an old friend of mine from M. H. S. Louise Lawrence was getting information about the next bus leaving for New Mexico. Wonder why! As this was Saturday and I was in Nashville, I decided to drop down by the Grand Ole Opry for a little entertainment. As I walked up to the ticket office the lady looked so familiar that my curiosity caused me to ask her name. I should have remembered her to start with—Violet Barnhill, who got her training at M. H. S. keeping office. After my chat with her I was astonished to hear about Junior Ratliff substituting for Carl Smith, who was ill at the time being. I started to my seat when a little fellow asked me if he could check my coat and hat. I was so shocked until I almost fell when I saw it was Kirby Burnette. After the show I decided I needed some sleep. I finally found a tourist court on the outside of town. The name (McGee's Tourist Court) made me stop. You guessed it—my old friend Donald McGee, the owner. I got an early start the next morning and made my first stop in Jackson, Miss. As I was looking for a place to eat I noticed Jackson's Modeling Shop, so I decided to take a look. there, in person, Barbara Morgan was the model. After my talk with Barbara, I was surprised to learn Jeanette Giles was living there. On my way out I dropped in to see her and her family. My next stop was in Birmingham, Ala. I happened to look in the telephone directory and just accidentally saw Mrs. Jack Ballard's name, so I decided I'd call and see if it was my old friend, Quida Faye Harris. Sure enough it was. I went over and had dinner with her and her children. It was nice to see her again after all these years. As I was looking through the paper I noticed that Alabama was playing Auburn in football out at the ball park. You bet I wanted to see it when I saw a picture of Walter Taylor as the leading player. I well remembered him as our class president. Just as I hoped, Alabama won. I had a real nice talk with Walter. He told me our friend, Darlton Davis, was mayor of Birmingham, so naturally I had to go by and see him. The gas was getting low so I stopped at Davis' Service Station. Just then a man stepped out, and I recognized him by his long legs as William Davis, our class secretary. He also told me about our friend, Hugh Morgan, who had a big cattle farm just a couple of miles on down the road. I dropped by to see him and there was his helper, J. W. Bone, the water boy. How well I remembered him with his shy way of making love! As I continued my journey, I stopped over in Montgomery for awhile when someone came up behind me and said, "Hello." Who could it be but Juanita McAfee? She was on her way to the party the Army was giving for a group of boys who had just returned from Korea. Wonder why she was so anxious to go? After my talk with her, I was glad to hear Denny Moore was driving one of the city buses. Naturally, I had to take a ride on his bus. When I got to Selma, I put a call through and I couldn't help but recognize the voice of the operator as Augusta Lawrence. I had a talk with her, especially about our Senior Play, the best one yet.

Just when I stepped outside I noticed the dog catcher truck coming down the street and the driver, of course, was Sniffie Harrison. I well remembered him in school as the wittiest boy. Just as I arrived in Mobile, as usual, a train had the traffic blocked. Then the flagman waved for me to go ahead and he whistled as I passed. I looked around and guess who? That flirty Billy Harrison. The oil had to be changed so I drove up to a gas station. The mechanic checked the oil. I saw it was my old classmate, Robert Hayes. I asked how much the oil was and he said, "forget it." I was shocked beyond words, for I remembered how stingy he was in study hall. He mentioned Betty Lovelady who was in the hospital. I inquired which one she was in, so I drove by to see her. Gosh, was I thrilled to see my old friend, Marie Smith (you guessed it—Waldrop now—not Smith) as her nurse. I was sorry to hear Betty's trouble was worry over the present situation. Gerald went overseas and had to leave his wife in Alabama.

I had a wonderful time in Florida and after seeing all my classmates I suppose you know where I wound up—in Tuscaloosa (my home).

Football Scores

The football spirit is in the air. September 14 has finally come. We played Highland Home down there. At the half the scores were 0-0. Then the last quarter the "Red Devils " were defeated 13-0.

Our second game was with Bibb County High. The "Devils" were defeated again 13-0. Even though it was raining, the boys played a good game.

The West Blocton game was our first home game. Their "Tigers" defeated our "Devils" 41-0.

We had our Homecoming game with Isabella. The Maplesville "Red Devils" rolled out 26 points leaving the Isabella "Mustangs" with 6.

We played Dallas County here defeating them 20-6.

We played Billingsley down there. To our disappointment the "Red Devils" were defeated 26-0.

The "Red Devils" went to Jemison with the intention of winning this game. The "Devils" trampled over the Jemison "Panthers" 20-14.

We played Billingsley again up here. To our sorrow the "Red Devils" were defeated 19-0.

Maplesville played Perry County here. The scores were 6-0 in Perry County's favor.

Our last game was with Hicks Memorial. The scores were tied 6-6.

Thanks to Coach Kelley for his patience and kindness in training the boys.

Basketball Tournament

The Maplesville basketball team came out runner-up in the district tournament as a result of yielding to the more powerful Clanton team but winning over Perry County and several other teams.

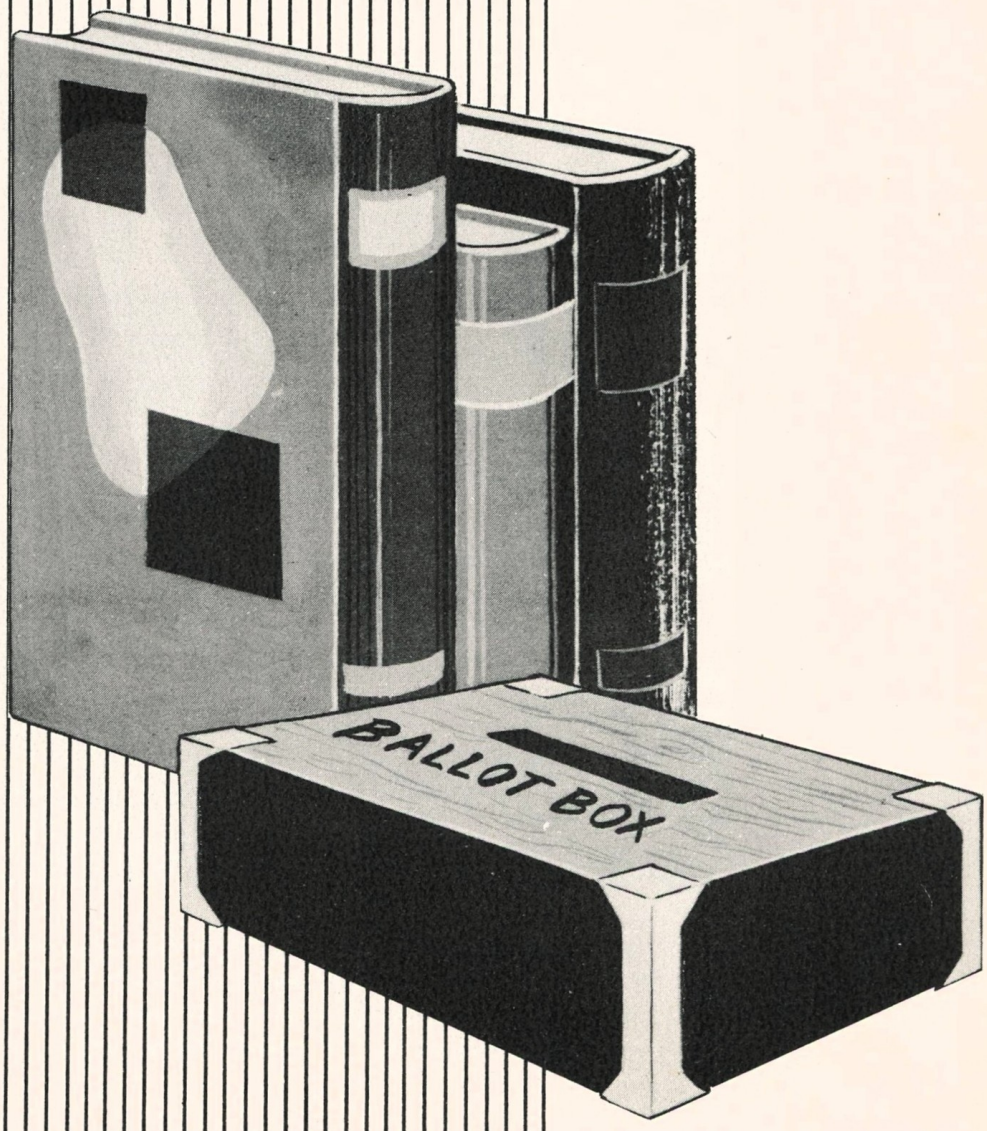

In the state tournament at Tuscaloosa, the Red Devils were victorious over the favored Warrior team. The New Brocton quints proved to be just the combination to overpower the Maplesville team in their next game.

With an exhibition of good sportsmanship and the excellent training given them by Coach Kelley, our Maplesville basketball team has a record for the 1951-52 season worthy of the praise of everyone.

Maplesville Beta Club is made up of sixteen students who were first endorsed by the faculty and then elected by the members of the club. Two inductions are held each year and the number of new members can never exceed ten.

The ideals of achievement, character and leadership are held up before club. This group is earnestly endeavoring to bring up the standards of eligibility for membership.

Last May the club was able to contribute $100.00 towards a scholarship for the member of the group who was deemed most worthy. This scholarship went to Miss Ann Merchant who is now completing her course at Alverson-Draughn Business College in Birmingham.

Hobgoblin House

This play sent cold shivers down the spines of its audience and for every thrill there was a hearty laugh. Miss Priscilla Carter was peeved because her two nieces, Marian and Jill, fell in love with two silly young nincompoops whom she believed to be two cheap fortune-hunters. As a result, she purchased the weird old Hobgood house in the foothills of the Ozarks and here in the seclusion of the mountanis, she plans a safe retreat where the girls shall not see their lovers for at least six months on penalty of being disinherited. And what a mess they got into—ghosts and ghostly doings everywhere.

Just as luck would have it, they arrived on the very night that old Bluebeard Bronson, who once committed a murder in the house, is supposed to revisit the scene of his crimes. And does he come? Well at any rate there were some strange happenings on that night of nights. When things were at their height the boys arrive—just in time to rescue the family from a desperate band of crooks. Not until then did Miss Priscilla relent.

The cast was as follows:

Miss Priscilla Carter, present owner of the Hobgood House.....Augusta Lawrence

Marian Carter, Miss Priscilla's niece.....Juanita McAfee

Jill Carter, her younger sister.....Marie Smith

Frank Harlow, Marian's fiance.....William Everett Davis

Jack Laring, Jill's fiance.....Walter Taylor

Susan Parkins, the "Henglish 'ousekeeper.....Mary Jane Waldrop

Henry Goober, gardener and outside man.....Donald McGee

Delilah Warts, Darky cook.....Millie Grover

Darvis Krupp, the ancient caretaker of the Hobgoblin House.....Robert Hayes

Bluebeard Bronson, escaped "maniac".....Hugh Morgan

Bill Williams, Bluebeard's keeper.....Kirby Burnette

The Headless Phantom.....Barbara Morgan

Junior-Senior Hayride

On October 16, 1951, the Juniors and Seniors went on a Scavenger Hunt-Hayride. We met at the school at seven-thirty and from there we started our hunt. We found directions to go first to the Mill Pond, Clarke Service Station, Shoe Shop, Summer's Filling Station, and Perry Crossing. Lucky Bobby Hamric found all the directions.

After we had found all the directions we rode around and then went back to the schoolhouse and made a big fire for roasting marshmallows.

Sandwiches and drinks were also served.

F.F.A. Hog Project

The FFA has under way a hog improvement project. These three hogs that are shown in the above picture are owned by the chapter. All the gilt offspring are given to FFA members on pig chain. At the present we have 16 pigs on chain and our goal for next year is a pig for each boy.

These boys have shown very much interest in this project and most of them will be rewarded with a pure bred pig.
