THE VISTA

1952 - 53

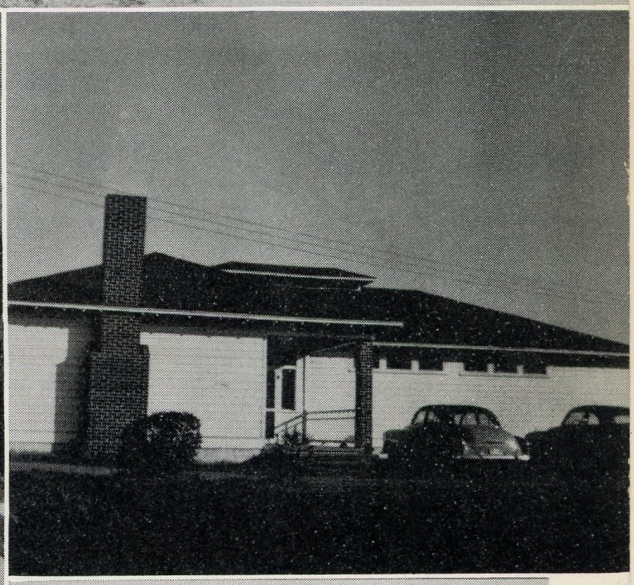

MAPLESVILLE SCHOOL

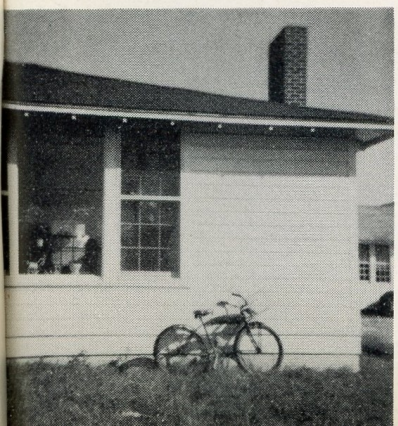

MAPLESVILLE, ALABAMA

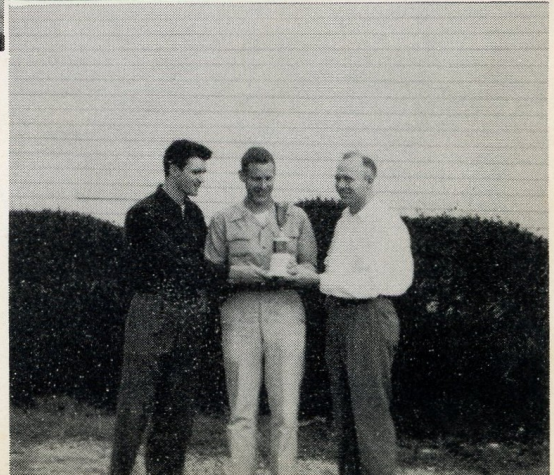

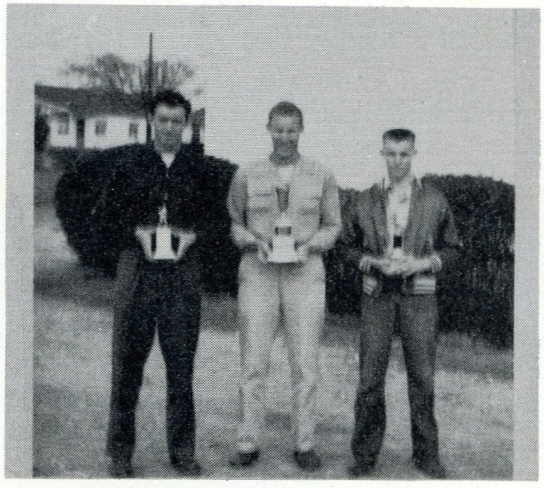

THE FOREWORD

We send this, the 1953 issue of the Vista to press with both joy and misgivings. We have tried hard to give a complete picture of our school and its program. We are a small school in members but our aims and objectives are great. We thank every person who has had any part in helping us gather material and put this book together. To our advertisers we are deeply grateful for without them there could be no yearbook. So to The Vista of 1953--hail and farewell.

DEDICATED TO

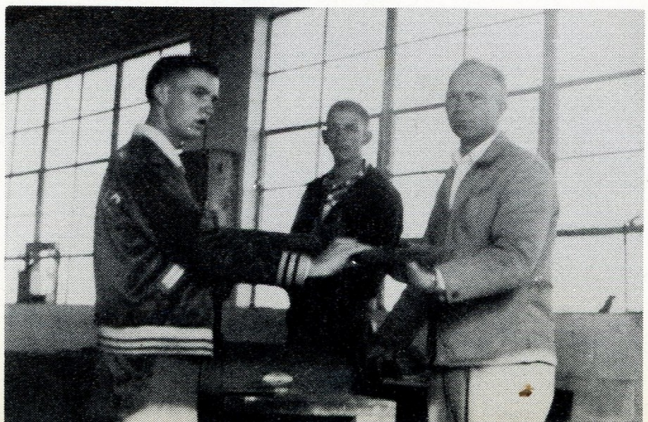

MR. CARLOS OWEN

During the year he has served as agriculture teacher, Mr. Carlos Owen has been greatly admired by the boys and girls of Maplesville High School. He has always shown understanding, patience and enthusiasm.

We, who have studied agriculture can never forget the cooperation, leadership, value of hard work and love of agriculture, he has taught us.

We also owe him a lasting debt of gratitude for what his hard work has meant to agriculture in our county.

As a token of our regard and appreciation for your unselfing contributions to Maplesville High School and the many farm families represented in our school, we the Class of '53 dedicate the Vista to Mr. Owen.

CLASS WILL

We the members of the Senior Class of Maplesville High School, being of failing mind and memory from overwork, and feeling that we are about to depart, this our school life, do hereby publish and declare this our last will and testament.

We feel a deep sympathy for the cheerful Juniors, who have yet to undergo the sufferings of the grave Seniors, and partly to alleviate these sufferings we do hereby bequeath to them our enviable reputation with the teachers as a model for the coming Senior Classes.

I, Alice Dial, will my ability to talk and chew gum at the same time to Artie Hathcock.

I, Raymond Davis, will my curly hair to Charles Giles.

I, Wilma Lucus, will my ability to attend all Church services and stay out of trouble to Laura Gay.

I, Doris Merchant, will my job as Editor-in-Chief to Marjorie McAfee.

I, Faye Ratliff, will my false teeth to Howard Fox.

I, Eugene Smitherman, will my art in love-making to Bobby Latham.

I, Thomas Hayes, will my ability to be a grease monkey to Joe Stough.

I, Shirley Chambers, will all the brown eyed boys but one to Lois Taylor.

I, Bobbie Middlebrooks, will my broad shoulders to Curtis Smith.

I, Donald Olen Atchison will my ability to get along with Mr. Owens to Paul Glaze.

I, Paul Nichols, will my ability to play hooky without being caught to Jimmie Johnson.

I, Brown Bolding, hereby will my ability to get along with Mrs. Cobern to Ed Day.

I, Billy Greene, will my ability to get by without studying to Thomas Chapman.

I, Felix Burt, hereby will all of the blonds except one to John Herrod.

I, Johnny Moore, will my ability to avoid girls to Mr. Bradford.

I, Billy Perry, will my ability to dance to Mrs. Cobern.

I, Bobby Hamrick, will my ability to get by in school without going to classes to John Motley.

I, Ernest Fuqua, will my ability to play basketball to Robert Harris.

We the Seniors of 1952-53 in appreciation to our underclass mates for their friendship, leave this will plus all the good times in hopes that they may take up where we left off.

CLASS PROPHECY

It had been about ten years since I had seen any of my classmates or had heard from them. Imagine my delight and surprise when in answer to an ad which I had put in the paper an old school chum of mine came to see me. I had advertised for a good musician capable of directing the Maplesville Ladies Band. Thomas Hayes, an accomplished player of the guitar came to answer the advertisement. We talked of old times and our other classmates. He informed me that Felix Burt was a cow doctor in a small western town and was having good business.

A few days later I received word that the band was required to play for a wedding at Stanton. I didn't know for whom we were to play but we met at the Stanton Hotel at seven o'clock and about an hour later were called on the job where I got the surprise of my life. Wilma Lucus was becoming the happy bride of Billy Greene who was a successful dealer in hairbrushes and mirrors. They were married by Reverend Raymond Davis and the bridesmaid was Ora Faye Ratliff. She had been a bridesmaid many times but never a bride.

The next day as I was going to buy some music a newsboy whom I recognized as Paul Nichols came up to me and yelled Extra! Extra! Of course I bought a paper and glanced at the headlines. LAWYER DEFENDS CRIMINAL-WINS BY HARD FIGHT. I started to read it and found that Johnnie Moore, a wizard lawyer, had proved that Donald Atchison accused of petticoat stealing, was innocent. I had always thought Johnnie would make a lawyer but I hadn't known Donald had such "taking ways".

The following week Alice Dial came to see me. She told me she had learned to play a saxophone and wanted to join my band. I was very glad to have her and we had a nice chat. She told me she was married to Ernest Fuqua and that they were very wealthy because Ernest was a bootlegger.

I received a long distance telephone message that my band was wanted to parade in the election campaign for Brown Bolding who was running for Sherriff of Randolph. When we arrived at Randolph I learned that Eugene Smitherman was editor-in-chief of The Star, a scandal sheet and that Shirley Chambers was his chief reporter.

Coming back through Cox's I saw a blind man playing a fiddle and singing "School Days". He looked familiar so I asked his name. He said he was Billy Perry. I told him who I was and inquired about his blindness. He told me he wasn't blind but he was making good money. I asked him whether he had heard of any of our classmates. He told me that Bobby Middlebrooks and Bobby Ray Hamrick was running the St. Vitus Dancing Acadamy in the Lawley Opera House.

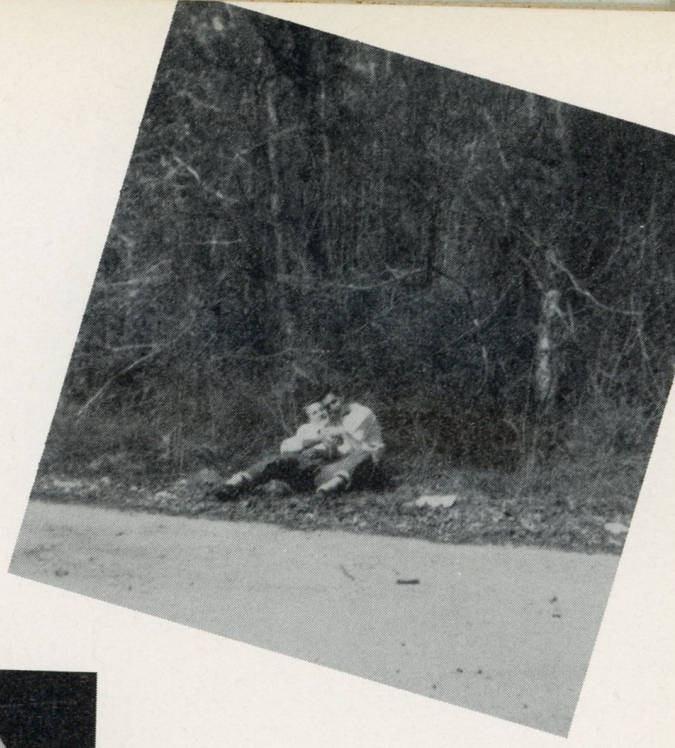

After I got home I pondered over my classmates. I had seen or heard of them all and I wished I was again in school instead of being manager of a band and married to a poor Chiropracter.

DEDICATION SERVICE

April 2nd was an important day in the year when the Ladies Auxiliary and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6331 presented a flag and flag pole to us for the front campus of our school at a very impressive dedication service.

The flag pole was given by Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Nix in memory of their son, Lt. Harvey M. Nix, Jr., who gave his life for his country March 21, 1943. The flag had flown over our nation's capitol and was given by Congressman Edward DeGraffenreid.
