SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We, the Seniors of '54, are happy to tell the history of our class, and all the precious memories we have to share. In our appreciation to the wonderful teachers we had, and to our principal, Mr. J. E. Daniel, we hope to leave an example of teamwork that our underclassmates will be proud to follow.

In the first grade, Lois Taylor, Magdalene Chapman, Mabeline Sealy, Willie Dell Abbott, Elizabeth Dennis, Marjorie McAfee, Barbara Sewell, Thomas Chapman, Curtis Sims, Joe and Billy Stough gave Mrs. Louise Chambers a rough time. While Mrs. Chambers was trying her best to teach us, we were sorry that Barbara, Billy and Joe left us. But we got them back in the second grade. Barbara came from Isabella, and Billy and Joe from Randolph. Our wonderful teacher that year was Miss Maude Johnson.

We came back to school for the third grade with heavy hearts because Marjorie had left during the summer. But Miss Jane Shanks soon cured our blues. We received Bobby Latham from Randolph, a welcome addition.

The fourth grade brought many wonderful things. Mable Motley came to us from Stanton; Bobbie Nell Patterson and Eugene Lawrence came from Isabella, and our old friend, Marjorie, from Harpersville. We were getting along fine with Mrs. Annie Owen until she had to leave us. In her place, Mrs. Annie Chambers came to us.

In the fifth grade, we learned that Mable Motley had gone to Birmingham, but she came back to us before the year was out. We were very fortunate to have Mrs. Virgil Nell Smith as our teacher.

This was one sixth grade that Mrs. Daisy Littlejohn will never forget. She wore out more paddles than she could manage to get. During this turning point from elementary to high school, we were very proud to receive Sherwood Grover into our mischief-making class. Seaborn Oden also entered our class. We were sorry to lose Willie Dell Abbott.

Our first year in Junior High was a big mystery to us, so we investigated it thoroughly with Mrs. Thresa Gay as our teacher.

On we went, plundering through the eighth and ninth grades, with Mr. John W. Herrod as our home room and science teacher. Mrs. Dorothy Daniel had us for the first time in English and health. Those first two years were enough for her! Coach Kelley will remember us in math and history. He, also, used many paddles.

Our busy year was our first year in Senior High. That is the year we can thank Stanton for sending us Guinivere Terry, Mattie Ruth and Mary Charles Rush, Frances Walker, Jimmy Johnson, Wayne Hardy and Maurice Hayes. From Hicks Memorial came Charles Giles, and Ann Osburn from Plantersville. We are grateful to Mrs. Pierson for our first year in home economics, and to Mr. Carlos Owen for our first year in agriculture. You should have been our initiation into FHA and FFA!

As Juniors, we took advantage of all opportunities to get into every kind of mischief. We kept Mrs. Cobern - our home room teacher - busy correcting us, and we are grateful to her. This was our first year in typing, with Mr. Bernard Bradford as our boss. We took over The Crimson Gleam, our school paper. Hugh Stewart came to us from Suttles, which made us happy, Mrs. Pierson left us, and Mrs. Martha Cowan succeeded her. Some of us became Beta Club members; others went into football, basketball and baseball.

We thought we were at our rope's end when we became seniors, but we had just started. As seniors, we were very busy with the annual, the play, and, of course, our classes. Mrs. Frances Camp took Mr. Bradford's place, and we elected her as our class sponsor, a wise choice, I would say. Carolyn Copeland came to graduate with us. Well, the story of our school life has come to an end, and we will go into all parts of the world with fond memories of old M.H.S. always fresh in our minds. We truly appreciate our teachers for their guidance, and our parents for their patience and understanding of our youthful problems.

A PROPHET'S PREVIEW

I parked my yellow Cadillac convertible and walked into the building. Although I had been away many years, it was still very much the same as when I was a senior at Dear Old M. H.S. A few new buildings dotted the scene, and a few coats of paint had been added - but it was still our old school!

As I went in the hall, I could almost hear our class as they hurried up and down that hall laughing and chattering as we had in our school days. When I entered the auditorium, I was met by our class sponsor, Mrs. Camp. Her beautiful blond hair was slightly gray, but her wonderful smile that made us love her so was still the same. She told me that some members of our class were there already, and sure enough, there sat Bobbie Patterson and Bobby Latham, who were now a popular dancing team on TV. Mable Motley and Billy Stough were there also. Mable told me that she was now modeling mink coats on "The Big Pay-off", and that Billy had taken Randy Merriman's place as MC. About this time, we heard someone slam on brakes and screech to a stop in front. We all ran to the door, and there was Curtis Sims getting out of his sports car. We all knew that he was a popular stock car racer. With him were Joe Stough, who runs a night club called "The Dripping Dagger", and his old buddy, Liz Dennis, who was an airline hostess. Liz told us she was making plenty of money, but spending most of it in reducing parlors.

Down the hall came someone pushing a buggy with two red-haired babies. Oh yes! Ann Osburn - or should I say Harrison? When all the "Hellos" had been said, we were greeted by Sherwood Grover, who was a floor detective at Loveman's, and Marjorie McAfee, a popular news commentator now that Walter Winchell had retired.

We then proceeded to the front to watch a military parade. Who is that behind? Oh, Yes! Our old friend Jimmy Johnson still bringing up the rear. At the head of the parade was Maurice C. Hayes, a major in the USAF. Congratulations!

Our Class of '54 is also represented at the University of Alabama, where Charles Giles is coaching football for the Crimson Tide, and Frances Walker is a professor. Willie Dell Abbott now owns the cigar factory, and Mabeline Sealy is her advertising manager, proving that Mabeline's art talent paid off.

We were glad to see that Carolyn Copeland, who joined us in our senior year, had found time to be with us. With her were her children, Carol and Otto, Jr. Too bad Magdalene Chapman couldn't be with us, but she was on duty at Jefferson Hospital in Birmingham. Barbara Sewell is also in Birmingham, working as a model at Pizitz. In walked Guinivere Terry, who is teaching at Stanton, and Mary Charles Rush, who is president of the First National Bank there. Mary Charles told us that Mattie Ruth was now making recordings for RCA Victor. She always could sing well.

Thomas Chapman had arrived by now. We had all seen Thomas on TV. He succeeded Jackie Gleason. Hugh Stewart was with him. Hugh is a panel member on "I've Got A Secret". You remember he was voted the most intelligent in Senior Who's Who?

We had all about talked ourselves out and were ready to leave when three gentlemen approached us. First came Seaborn Oden, who had retired and gone back home to Mobile; then Eugene Lawrence, Scoutmaster of Maplesville Scouts. Last but not least came Wayne Hardy, who is coaching basketball at Auburn.

Everyone enjoyed our get-together, but now it was time to leave. I cranked up my Cadillac and drove off. (Of course, you all know I am getting rich by wearing dark glasses and passing the hat on the streets of Maplesville).

MR. AND MISS MAPLESVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

For the past ten years, it has been customary for the students of school to elect by secret ballot the boy and girl who are most representative of the student body. These students must have at least a "B" average, must be active in school affairs, must be liked by the majority of the students. Two seniors were chosen this year. "Mr." is Charles Giles, FFA president, star football player and good student. "Miss" is Elizabeth Dennis, Beta Club and FHA secretary and excellent student.

The Maplesville Red Devils had a very fine 1953 football season, with a record of six wins and four losses.

A home game with Clanton opened the season on September 11. We lost the opener by a score of 25-7.

Our trip to Columbiana, September 18, brought defeat again. Score 19-0.

Red Devils vs. West Blocton, September 25, failed to break that losing streak. Score 46-6 in West Blocton's favor.

The next game, October 2, played here with Perry County, brought us a great victory! Score 12-7.

Holtville came to Maplesville October 9, and took home the victory to the tune of 38-6.

Victory for Maplesville, with a score of 39-6, resulted from the game with Billingsley October 16.

Jemison bowed to Maplesville by the substantial score of 39-0 in the October 23 game.

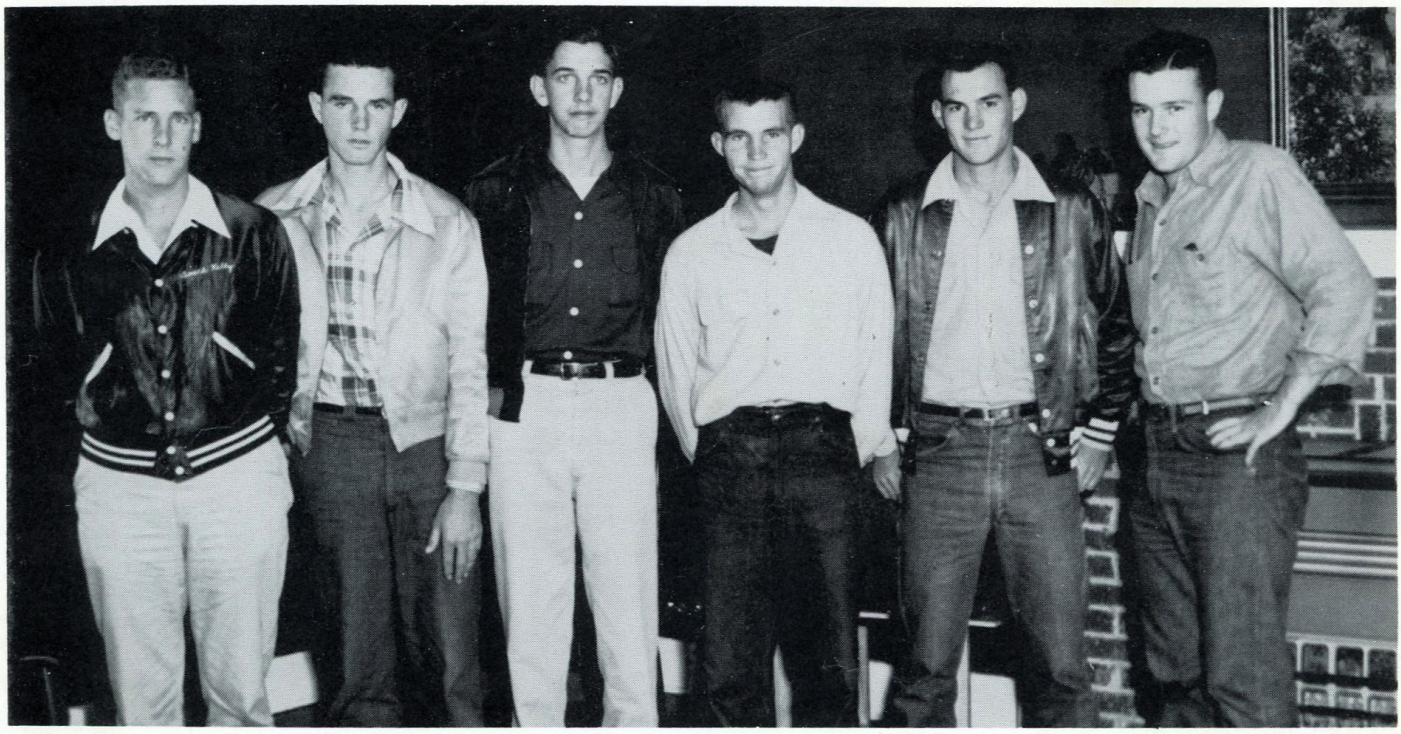

Again we enjoyed the taste of victory, this time defeating Isabella 18-13, October 30.

Homecoming was a great success in every way, including a 39-7 victory over Dallas County.

The season ended on a note of victory for our boys, with a 20-7 win over Hicks November 13.

Yes, it was a great season! Maplesville Red Devils scored a total of 186 points, against a total of 168 points for our opponents.

Jackie,
I have just learned to read and write.
I am now almost sixteen years old and I am in the third grade.

Wots of Wuck,

Bobby Growing
