THE VISTA

I have heard so many people say such nice things about you. I regret that I never had you as a class. I certainly want to thank you for the great help you have been these three years.

Martha S. Cowan

Dedication

We, the members of the Senior Class of Maplesville High School, dedicate this 1956-57 Vista to Mrs. Martha Alice Cowan. Mrs. Cowan graduated from Alabama College and soon afterward joined the faculty to teach Home Economics here at the high school from which she graduated. During the time she has taught here all her students have grown to love her. The girls have found in Mrs. Cowan a true friend, wise advisor and excellent teacher. She is a good leader and many school activities have been a success because of her careful planning and efficient supervision. In appreciation of one who has done her part in making ours a good school, we dedicate this Vista to Mrs. Cowan.

We, the staff of 1956-57 Vista, wish to thank every person who has helped us to make this a good yearbook. We thank the businessmen who bought our advertising space, the faculty members who gave us good suggestions and excused students from classes, our sponsor, Mrs. Billingsley, who has worked right along with us and finally the students who have bought our books. We hope you enjoy your Vista as much as we have enjoyed editing it for you.

Class Reunion 1967

Tonight we are gathering for our first reunion since we left the halls of old Maplesville High. As I gaze at the handsome new school plant which now houses the Maplesville students, I am saddened when I look on the eager young faces about me without recognizing a one of them. Where are my classmates?

Wait! Here comes someone who looks familiar! It is Howell Atcheson. One glance at his spic and span uniform tells me that he is a lieutenant in the Air Force. Good old Howell. Slow but sure.

Can this stylish young woman be Hazel Chandler. Yes, it is no other and she tells me she is still Hazel Chandler and is a model for Neiman Marcus in Dallas. My, those are rich duds she is wearing!

Here comes Leslie Benton, and he is the same smiling Leslie with the addition of 50 pounds. It doesn't surprise us to learn that he has recently been made president of the University of Alabama.

And here is petite Laura Ann Dennis. And those two little girls are the living image of their lovely mother. Two more future students for Maplesville School.

Arland Chandler is now strolling in in his usual nonchalant manner. Who would have thought he would become principal of Maplesville School?

Linda Goff Chandler is now entering. She has realized her girlhood dream of a beautiful home and five young sons to keep her busy.

Billy Davis has arrived. He has just completed a tour with the famous Statesmen's Quartette.

Peggy Joyce Hayes is here. She is dietitian for the Waldorf Hotel and is wearing a huge new diamond ring.

Edward Fuqua is here. He is most happy in his job of director of Boy Scouts of America.

Hazel Hill strolls in in her usual dignified manner. Hazel married the heir to the F. W. Woolworth Company and her jewels never saw a dime store.

What is that loud noise? I might have known - Dale Green has arrived. We are not surprised to learn that he is manager of the Yellow Front Store.

Isn't this Jo Ann Lawley? Yes, it is no other. Jo Ann writes the movie column which was once edited by Louella Parson.

Kenneth Mitchel is here. Kenneth's hard work has payed off. He is now president of Texaco Oil Company.

Who is this dignified man who is approaching? Well, if it isn't Harold Motley! We hear that Harold chose politics instead of sports. He is now probate judge of Chilton County.

Here comes Jasper Perry. Jap is a very successful hot rod driver. His first ride on a hot rod really gave him the fever.

And here is our old friend, Jimmy Rasberry. Jimmy owns the biggest cattle ranch in the county and is said to be the richest bachelor in the state.

Freddie Shoults arrives: He is head of the County Farm Bureau and is the father of six little Shoults.

Cecil Sims has come. He is a salesman for Ford Motor Company in Clanton and is said to be the best-dressed man on the staff.

Here comes Jimmy Johnson. After a successful athletic career at the University of Alabama, he is the star fullback for the Cleveland Browns.

Lexie Mae Nichols is here. She is first grade teacher at Stanton, and the children all adore "Miss Lexie."

And here is Roy McGee. He is now head football coach at the University of Florida. For the last three years Alabama has defeated his team. Roy still smiles at the ladies but his three young daughters keep him pretty busy at home.

Dell Ray Royster has just come in with her two boys. She makes her home in Ensley.

Nettie Smitherman is now entering the room. She is married to the president of Southern Railways and travels extensively.

Henry Lee Walker has come in - late as usual. He is basketball coach of the University of Kentucky - one of the best in the business.

And here's old Buddy Williams. Maybe we should call him - Lloyd, now. He is driving a Holsum Bread Truck. He succeeded Hamrick Hathcock who now owns "Holsum."

James Wilson has strolled in. James is a famous comic strip artist. He is with Birmingham News.

And here is Smitty Williams. He is depot agent for Southern Railways and is in line for a big promotion.

Dorothy Mathis has just arrived. Dorothy is studying music at the University of Alabama and has distinguished herself as drummer in the Million Dollar Band.

Jimmy Harrison just walked in. Jimmy makes his home in Nevada where he is owner of a big cattle and truck farm. He is married and has six little boys.

Jean Moore enters now. She and her husband are the new owners of the Bankhead Hotel where she houses all members of Maplesville Beta Club while they are at the convention. We know that is the reason why she bought the hotel.

Eddie Higgenbotham has just parked his Cadillac. We are surprised to learn that he is president of Formost Dairy Company but he makes his home in the suburbs of Clanton.

Sylvia Moore just came in. She is now the typing teacher at Maplesville. We remember her as a whiz with the typewriter.

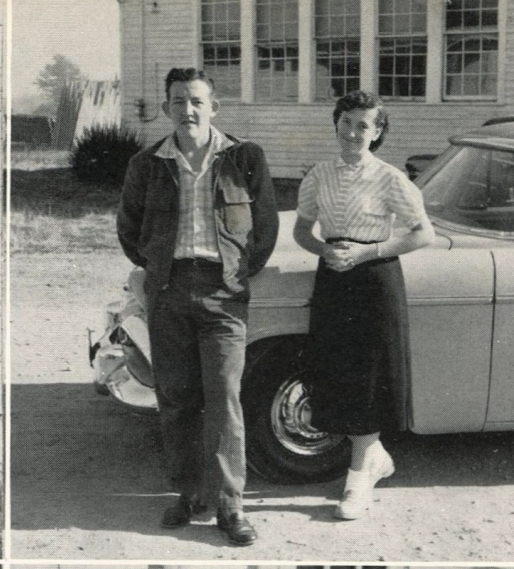

Here comes W. C. Hayes. He is now manager of the New York Yankees and his team has just won their ninth World Series. W. C. is rated the smartest manager in the American League.

And here is Betty Carole Stewart. She is following the footsteps of her mother and is owner of the swankiest beauty shop in Atlanta.

Hellen Trott Lenoir has just come in rather hurriedly and out of breath. Her three young sons are pretty hard to manage but Hellen is as sweet and smiling as in her high school days.

Can this possibly be our old sponsor, Mrs. Billingsley? Yes, it surely is. Her hair is now snowy white but they say she finally landed that rich oil man in Texas. Must be true for her chauffeur is driving a Cadillac.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of 1956-57, in appreciation to our teachers and underclassmen for their loyalty and friendship, do hereby will and bequeath the following:

I, Helen Lenoir, will my ability to get married to Miss Smith.
I, Hazel Chandler, will all of the curly haired boys, except one, to Virginia Anderson.
I, Lexie Nichols, will my sweetness to Shirley McAfee.
I, Dell Ray Royster, will my quiet ways to Gloria Wright.
I, JoAnn Lawley, will my witty ways to Betty Lawrence.
I, Joyce Hayes, will all my bookkeeping books to Miss Smith.
I, Dale Green, will my ability to drive to Tommy Gregg.
I, Jimmy Rasberry, will my muscles to Therman Waldrop.
I, Arland Chandler, will my crazy laugh to Leon Ferguson.
I, Howell Atchison, will my ability to have flat tires to James Fuqua.
I, Betty Carole Stewart, will my glasses to Joyce Atchison.
I, C. W. Rush, will my ability to study to Perry Chapman.
I, Jimmie Harrison, will my wavy hair to Mr. Herrod.
I, Billy Davis, will my ability to make A's in Miss Smith's class to Kenneth Burnett.
I, Cecil Sims, will my thumping ability to Woody Ratliff.
I, Henry Lee Walker, will my ability to drive a bus to Billy Giles.
I, Eddie Higginbotham, will my ability to play tackle to Gary Bearden.
I, Harold Motley, will my famous pool shot to Jerry Harrison.
I, Laura Ann Dennis, will my ability to finish school without getting married to Norma Jean Smith.
I, Jimmy Johnson, will my ability to skip classes to James Fuqua.
I, Freddie Shoults, will my quietness to Henry (Dub) Latham.
I, Dot Mathis, will my ability to play the piano and drum to Blossom Barnes.
I, Linda Chandler, will my ability to be friendly to everyone to Betty Joyce Davis.
I, James Wilson, will my ability to write short stories to Jerry Ousley.
I, Jean Moore, will my green eyes to Sandra Day.
I, W. C. Hayes, will my ability to get along with Mr. Cobern to Lewis Mitchell.
I, Hazel Hill, will my dignity to Virginia Anderson.
I, Jap Perry, will my ability to be able to vote in the 12th grade to Bobby Langston.
I, Kenneth Mitchell, will all my extra sleep to the "Sleeping Beauty," Winston Short.
I, Nettie Smitherman, will all my D's and F's in bookkeeping to Paul Keener.
I, Edward Fuqua, will my ability to work with and get along with others to Winston Short.
I, Leslie Benton, will my ability to work plane geometry to Billy Carl Klinner.
I, Roy McGee, will my title of "Biggest Flirt" to Shirley McAfee.
I, Buddy Williams, will my ability to stay with "Cabbage" two weeks without getting killed to all the marines.
I, Sylvia Moore, will my temper to Una Fay Patterson.
I, Smitty Williams, will my "no belt wearing" ability to Joe Hicks.

To the Senior Class of 1957-58, I, Georgia Billingsley, will the old senior home room with the famous board of education which reposes quietly beneath the worn desk until some unlucky offender oversteps the bounds of decent classroom behavior. Along with this old home room, I trust the county board will provide a sparkling young teacher as slender and graceful as Mrs. Cowan, with the vitality of Mrs. Daniel, the intelligence of Mrs. Cobern, the enthusiasm of Miss Smith and the patience of Mr. Daniel.

Hereby signed and sealed on this day of December 10, 1956

ACTIVITIES

Mr. and Miss M. H. S.

The highest honor awarded two students each year is the title of Mr. and Miss Maplesville High School. These students must have at least a "B" average, be of good character and be popular with the student body. Mr. M. H. S. of 1956-57 is Harold Motley, an excellent football player and member of the basketball team. Miss M. H. S. is Laura Ann Dennis, who has been a cheerleader for the past two years and is serving as editor-in-chief of the Vista. Both are seniors, Beta Club members and take an active part in extracurricular activities.
