VISTA

1960

Along with all the many honors that attend us when we reach our senior year in school is that of publishing the annual.

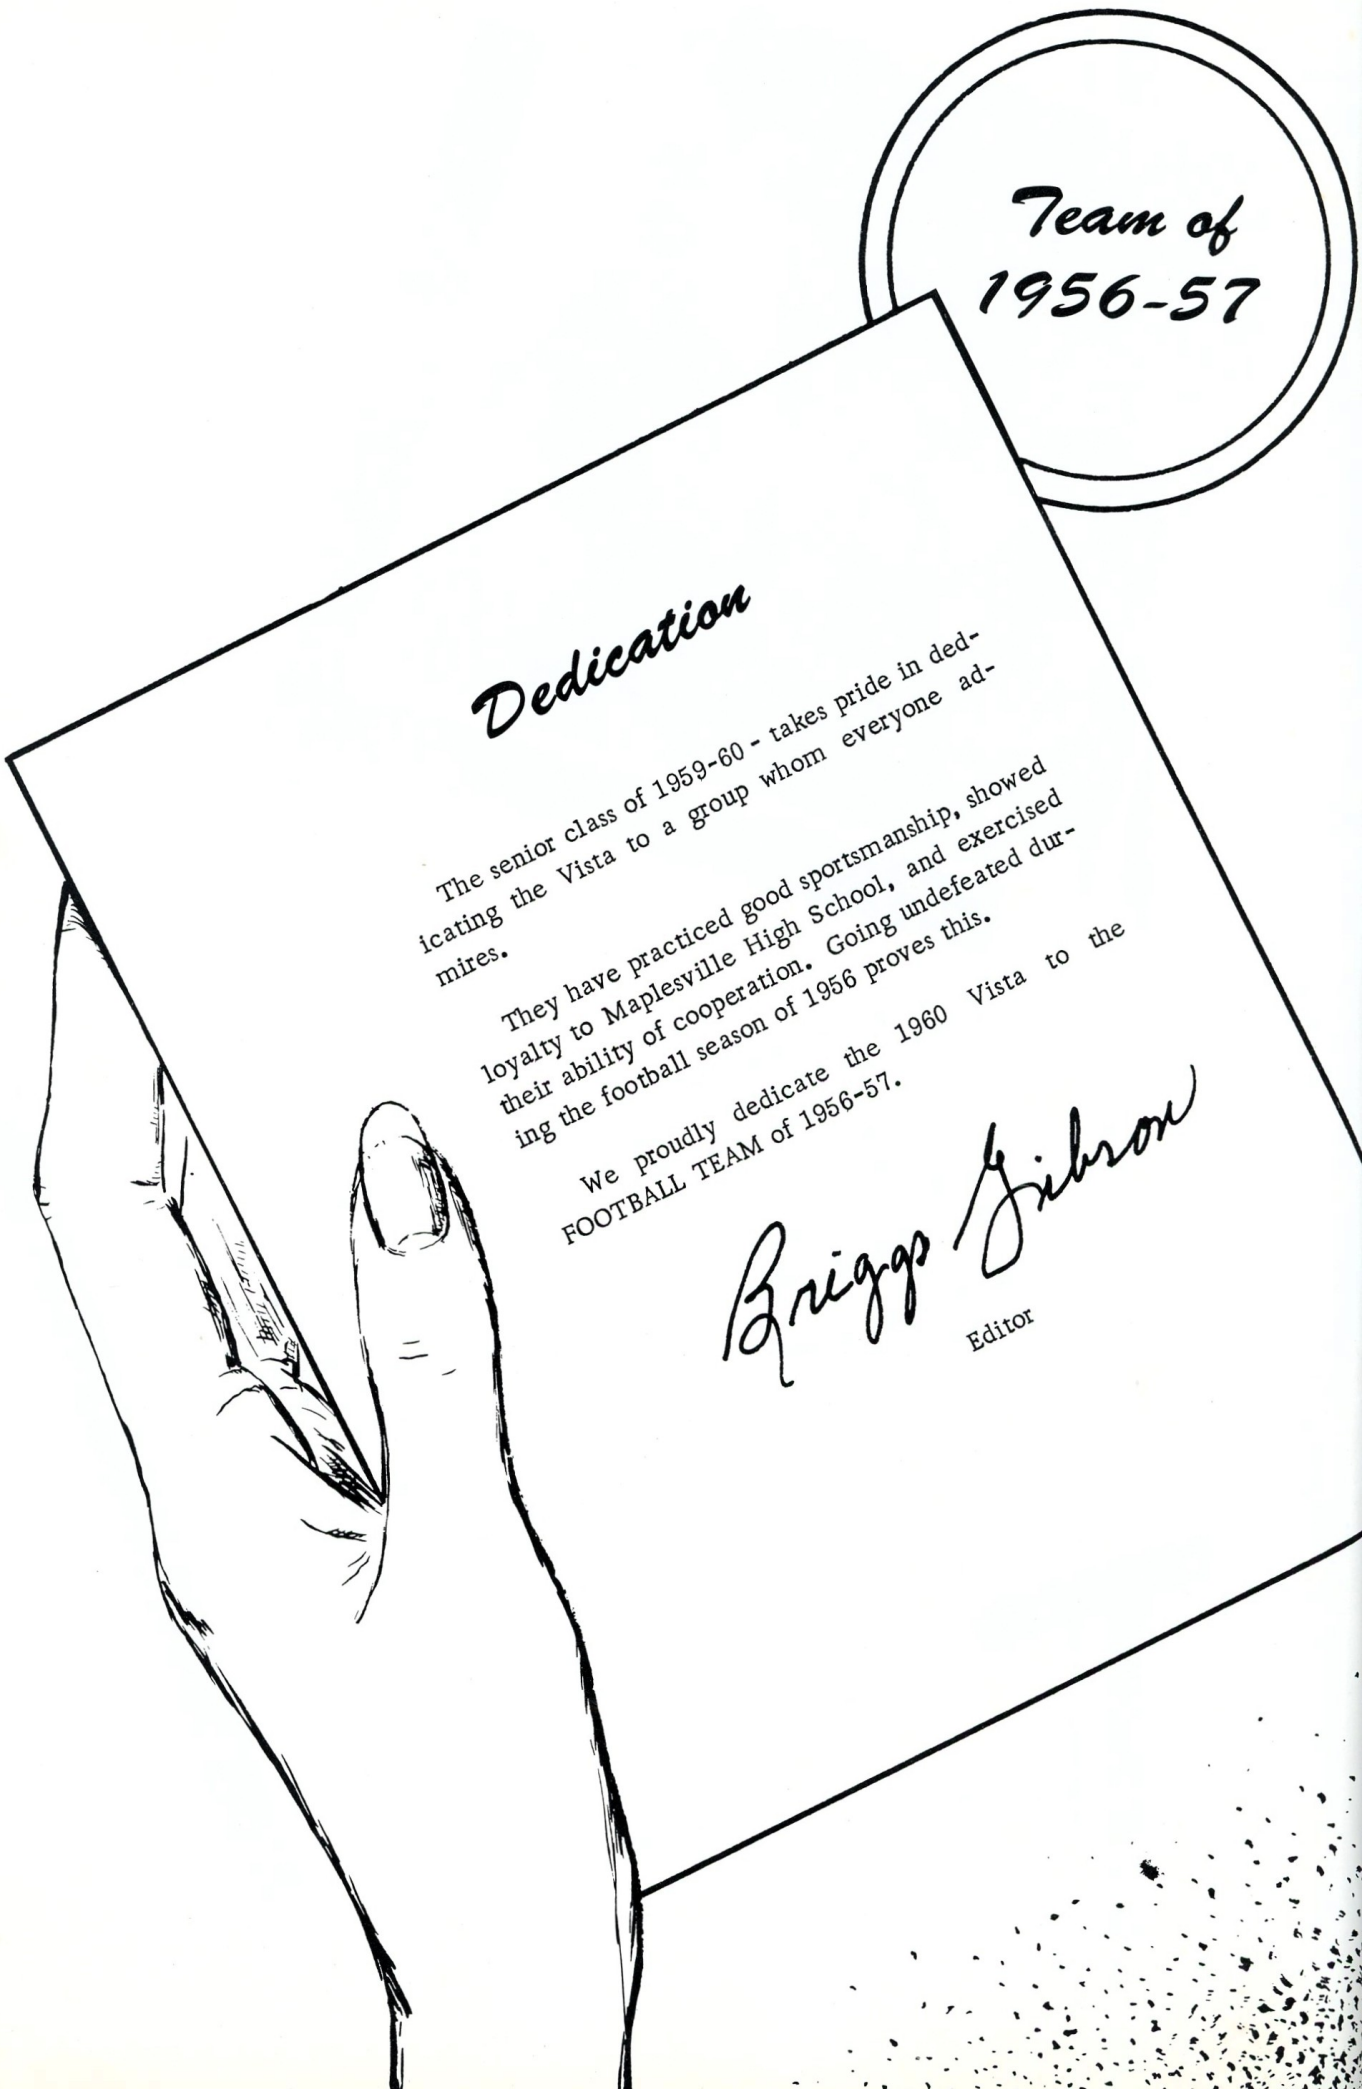

Publishing the yearbook is the best way we know of giving you a picturesque vision of all the happenings of this, the most wonderful and exciting year of our lives. Many of our most treasured moments would be forgotten were it not for the pictures that will make us smile and say "Those were the Good Ole Days," when we have grown older and more mature in mind and spirit.

To you, our parents, sponsors and all the teachers who have contributed toward making this "our" annual possible, we say "Thank you." To you, our fellow students, the simple words "Thank you" are insufficient to express our appreciation. Without you there would have been no annual.

In presenting to you the "Vista" 1959-60 we leave you with these words of advice - "Look not into the past . . . It comes not again . . . Wisely improve the present . . . It is thine . . . Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear, and a manly heart."

Dedication
The senior class of 1959-60 - takes pride in dedicating the Vista to a group whom everyone admires.
They have practiced good sportsmanship, showed loyalty to Maplesville High School, and exercised their ability of cooperation. Going undefeated during the football season of 1956 proves this.
We proudly dedicate the 1960 Vista to the FOOTBALL TEAM of 1956-57.

OUR MINIATURE Who's Who

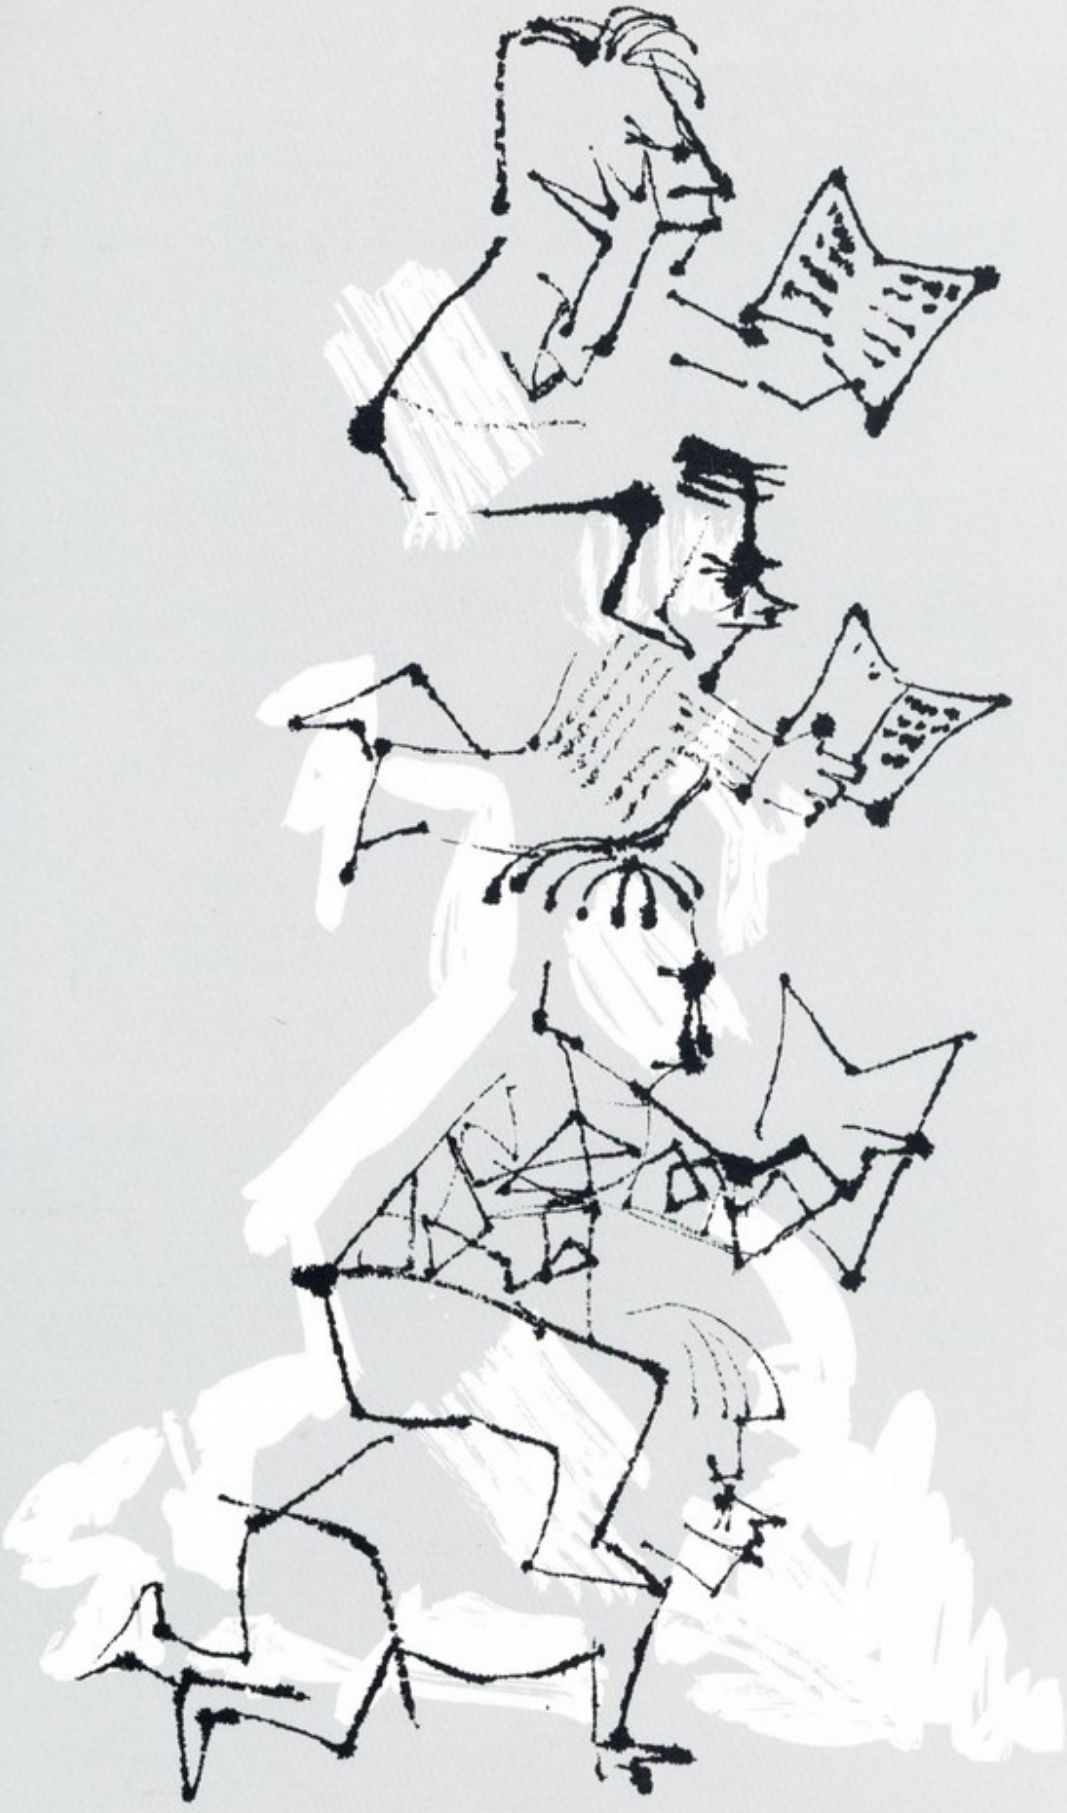

Class Prophecy
1960 Seniors

It is 1970, and the class of 1960 is meeting for its first reunion. First we see Myra Abbott, who is a famous Metropolitan Opera Star in New York. Next, in line we have Roy Atchison, the Mayor of Adams. Who is this arriving in a black Cadillac? It is none other than Ann Blanton, the top bop teacher in the country. We now see a black horse galloping into view. This could be none other than Gary Bearden, owner of the famous "Star Ranch" in Texas. Next, we see Edith Burnett, the eighth grade home room teacher at dear "ole Maplesville High." Wow, here comes Bobby Edwards, the successor of Mr. Rucker as Manager of the Yellow Front Store. By the way, there's Ruby Jean with her little Marna Elizabeth and Roy Jr. Here comes Briggs Gibson who recently employed Liberace to teach his children piano. Of course, all of you know that Bobby Gay is the new owner of Sue's Beauty Shop in Selma. Here he comes, flying low, as usual. It could be none other than Dunne Greene, the champion of Clanton's Drag Strip. Now we see Johnnie Faye Hayes all dolled up in her Army Uniform. We understand that she will leave early since she is meeting someone in Fort Jackson. Here comes Ralph Hayes with one little Rufus and a Tuff. Got married at last, huh, Ralph. Well, here comes June Hicks, who is Mrs. Houston, and the owner of Houston Stores, Inc. Douglas Hall is arriving with plenty of pep. He is the co-owner of Harrison Grocery. It is now time for Elaine Hicks. She is the Glee Club Director of M.H.S. Here is Butch Higginbothom, still a milk boy, even though he owns his own dairy in Stanton. Barbara Johnson, the librarian at Montevallo College, just walked in. What is that sweet music we hear? It is none other than David Kitchen crooning his little Kitchens to sleep. He is the headliner along with Chet Atkins at the Grand Ole Opry. Who is this arriving now? Why the head coach at Auburn, none other than our own Tim Moore. Barbara Lawrence, a missionary in Boola-Boola, Africa, arrived a few minutes ago by jet. We're sorry to announce that Herschel Parnell is not with us tonight, he is in Reno, Nev., clearing up his third marriage problem. The current Peach Queen is Helen Pate. Well, I'll be if it isn't Willie Smith, Professor of Basket Weaving at the University of Alabama. We are proud to say that Emma Jean Rasberry is Miss America of 1970. Bobby Seales has arrived with his flock of little Seales. Say, who was that not going to marry for at least 10 years, Bob? Our nurse is here, and it is none other than Edith Royster, Supervisor of University Hospital, Birmingham. Charles Stewart, who is standing near, is the most industrious farmer in Possum Scratch. In addition, he owns a fleet of Cadillacs. Why, here is Beatrice Smitherman, head lunchroom worker, at Vermont. Well, well, here is Oscar Waldrop, the current replacement for Mr. Kelley. Charlotte Smith, whose presence is obvious, finally got her well-digger, plus two little Smitherman's. Here is Sarah Nell Smith, the new Superintendent of Education's secretary. All of you know that this is none other than Mr. Kelley. Our Governor's secretary has just arrived by plane, and this is Virginia Terry. Alma Jean Walker is a little late tonight. She had to feed the cattle and lock the Dairy. Of course, she is Mrs. Higginbothom now. Last we see Myrtle Ann Wallace, the proud mother of two little girls. All of you must visit Myrtle on her million acre ranch in Texas. She might give you an oil well since her husband is a millionaire.

AMONG ALABAMA'S RESOURCES

IT'S FORESTS ARE SECOND ONLY

TO ITS YOUTH

As new graduates, you are about to pursue further education in college or assume directly the responsibilities of the business world. We at Belcher Lumber Co. -- with the help of our neighbors -- are busily growing timber and converting it into products that bring substantial income to scores of communities. Whether our activities concern you directly -- or just indirectly -- we congratulate you on your accomplishment and wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.
