Much learning is inspirational. May Maplesville High School inspire you to reach your learning potential.

J. L. Kelley

We, the Vista Staff, along with our sponsor, have tried to plan a yearbook that will bring to you a vivid picture of your school days. We have attempted to cover all the activities that have made this year one to remember. Some of your treasured memories will be recalled when you look at the '61 Vista.

A lot of hard work has gone into this book because we feel that a job worth doing is worth doing well. Without the cooperation we have had in preparing this book, it would not have been possible for us to make it a success.

To all who had a part in making this year's Vista, we thank you.

In deep appreciation of the patience and understanding shown to us in our senior year, we, the senior class of 1961, dedicate our issue of "The Vista" to our sponsor Without her influence and guidance none of it would have been possible. She came to our school in 1959. Since that time we have all learned to admire and respect her patient guidance. We, the senior class of 1961, dedicate our Vista to MRS MARY JO CRUMPTON

Prophecy

It had been approximately ten years since I had visited my home town or heard from any of my classmates. I had come a long way with great anticipation both for my appearance at my alma mater and the thought of seeing once again all my classmates and friends. As my career as a comedienne had been very unusual and exciting, I was asked by the principal, Gene Hathcock, to make an appearance at the Annual Fiddlers Convention at the school. All of you remember that our class originated this annual event. When I arrived at Herrod's airport, located in the suburbs of Maplesville, on my chartered plane, I was greeted by some of my ardent admirers.

Just as I stepped off the plane I heard LINDA and Ralph arguing as usual, this time it was whether all eight children could attend the performance. You guessed it. Linda won. All eight kids stayed home. Looking around, I saw JACKIE EDWARDS, yelling and cheering as ever. Speaking of cheering, she is a cheerleader for the baseball team at Montevallo College. After 10 years, she finally got to enter college. Behind her a distinguished young grey-haired man with his petite wife caught my eye. I quickly recognized Dr. and Mrs. Watson. TOMMY didn't want to come all the way from Hong Kong, but DOROTHY always did idolize me.

Waiting to take me into town was a 1957 yellow cab. The driver was BUDDY GOFF. The way he drove back in '61 made us think his car wouldn't last a year, much less this long. As I reached town, I was received by a welcoming committee. The first to greet me was the Mayor of Maplesville, BETTY BREWER. She always was good at running things - in the ground that is. Next in line was councilwoman, FAYE RIFFE. In her spare time, Faye is the chief reporter for SMEAR magazine, the editor being none other than BOBBY HARRISON. His office is at the rear of Ma Beechies Sin Palace. He always was a wild one. Faye also informed me that JOYCE CHAMBERS could not be with us as she is in Acapulco, Mexico, getting her fifth divorce. She always was a fast worker.

Someone tapped me on the shoulder. Turning around I saw JOHNNY THOMAS and HOWARD GRAHAM. They told me that they owned the Beatnik Pad in Portland, Oregon. Howard plays the bongos and Johnny reads poetry. I was equally surprised to learn that JOHN McAFEE was the president of the bank. We knew he was honest even though he never made the Beta Club. Last on the committee was JOSEPH BEARDEN. He had succeeded Dudley Nix as Ford salesman in Maplesville. This was the only way he could get his T-Bird.

Before the performance, I wanted my hair set. I wasn't surprised to see that MARIE RATLIFF had put Mrs. Stewart out of business. I looked under a dryer and there sat SARA FERGUESON. Marie told me that she was a Mrs. Oden now. She and Mr. Oden run the St. Vitus Dancing Academy at Friendship Opera House. I learned, also, that BOBBIE JEAN LAWRENCE had married a wealthy hairbrush dealer. The ceremony had been performed by the Reverend BUREAN HUFF. Leaving the shop, I toured the town. The old theater had been remodeled by a new owner, ROY CARTER. Stopping at the Yellow Front Store, WILLIAM DAVIS, the new manager, greeted me. He had succeeded Myrtle Tyndall about six years previous. He told me all about CHARLES HARRISON singing with the Jordannaires and their tour of Russia backing up E. P. I looked at my watch and discovered that I had just enough time to eat before my performance. Looking around, I saw the Glass House. While looking over the menu, I heard a familiar voice. It was JOANN ATCHISON. She owns a chain of Glass Houses. While waiting for my order, I glanced over the newspaper. The headlines were quite a shock. In big, black print, I read Latham defends Haigler. Reading the article I learned that BILL LATHAM, a famous criminal lawyer, was defending WALTER HAIGLER for petticoat stealing. I never thought Walter would reach so low. Yet, he had Bill as his lawyer so we knew who would win the case. After dinner, I went directly to the school.

Waiting backstage for the curtain to rise I felt the butterflies start. Miss Brown came back to see me. She told me she was president of the Koola-Koola Flip Flop Shoe Co. in Tokyo, Japan. Carolyn Harrison and Evelyn Short also came back to see me. We recognized CAROLYN as the maid on the Danny Thomas Show. It seems her part as Camilla in QUIT YOUR KIDDING paid off. EVELYN is teaching at Maplesville High School. She is engaged to the Head Coach, MASON HARRIS. Mason's assistant is Bob Haggard, his name seemed familiar, but I could not place him just at that moment. They told me that PATSY ATCHISON is a foreign diplomat. She interprets Pig Latin into six languages at the United Nations. BETTY RASBERRY is her executive secretary. Betty just completed a recording of "Typewriter Blues" for the Rick Rack Recording Company.

BETTY RUTH MOORE arrived breathless. She had flown in from Washington, D.C., where she owns the Hotel Harrington. We understand that she gives seniors from M.H.S. special attention. I checked the program to see who was working with me. Mary Jo Crumpton, Fiddler, was first to catch my eye. Further down the program I noticed the name, LAURA WILSON, Opera Star. I remember her well as the lead in "Madame Butterfly." I heard my cue, and made my entrance on the stage. Immediately after the show, I prepared to leave. A young man opened the door for me. He was coming in as I was leaving. This was HENRY ED PERRY. As I recall he was always late for something or other. He has been in the Army for eight years and is still a PFC. With his punctuality, I can't understand this.

It had been a wonderful day, and I was thankful for the privilege of seeing my former classmates once again. As I climbed aboard my plane to return to my world of "fame and celebrities," I was looking forward to being asked to appear at the next Fiddlers Convention. I felt confident that they would ask me, MARTHA JO MITCHELL.

CLASS PROPHET

History

Twelve happy years ago Mrs. Louise Chambers and Mrs. Annie Owen were eager, bewildered, and proud of a class composed of Joann Atchison, William Davis, Howard Graham, Betty Jane Brewer, Buddy Goff, Joyce Chambers, Walter Haigler, Linda Chambers, Mason Harris, Dorothy Chapman, Burean Huff, Sara Nell Ferguson, John McAfee, Bobbie Lawrence, Henry Ed Perry, Martha Mitchell, Johnny Thomas, Betty Moore, Tommy Watson, Betty Rasberry, Marie Ratliff, Norma Faye Riffe, and Laura Wilson. Our teachers were very patient and understanding.

We welcomed into our class in the second grade, Patsy Atchison from Bessemer. Our teachers were Miss Maude Johnson and Mrs. Owen. Mrs. Owen well-remembered us from the first year, and Miss Johnson had a lot to learn.

We shall always have fond memories of our third grade teacher, Mrs. Inez Barnes. How well we remember her taking us on our first field trip to the dairy.

During our fourth year, we welcomed into our class, Jackie Edwards from Birmingham and Joseph Bearden from Stanton. Mrs. Annie Chambers, our fourth grade teacher, remembers us as the class who should remember these words, "I shall not talk in class."

We were fortunate to have Mrs. Virgil Nell Smith as our fifth grade teacher. I know we will remember the day she was so upset over our conduct in science class. That is the memorable occasion when she broke the heel off her shoe.

The sixth grade was one of excitement. We were getting ready to take the big step into junior high school, where we knew a lot of exciting and fascinating things would happen to us. Mrs. Gay was probably at her wits end when school was closed that year.

We were looking forward to big things in the seventh grade, but we had no idea we would be picking up rocks on the football field for Mr. Kelley, our home room teacher.

Mr. Kelley was also our home room teacher in the eighth grade. Some of us received our first licks with a paddle skillfully applied by our teacher. Bill Latham, from Birmingham, joined our class at this time.

By the time we reached Mr. Herrod's room we were a group of well-disciplined students. We carried out our first experiments in science under his able direction. The girls enjoyed their first year of Home Economics, and the boys were just as interested in Agriculture.

We welcomed into our class, Evelyn Short, Carolyn Harrison, Bobby Harrison, Charles Harrison, and Roy Carter. We were busy as bees. We entered into every activity that could be named. We shall never forget the night our class presented "This is Your Life - Clem Kadiddlehoffer" show.

As juniors, we had many responsibilities. In April, we presented our Class Play. We had published the school newspaper, renamed by our class, the "Monthly Miracle." Many of us became Beta Club members. The boys were well represented in football and basketball.

We thought we would just take it easy as this was our senior year, but we soon found that we were to be busier than ever working on the annual, the play and the million other things that seniors do - in addition to their studies. At the time of this writing we are planning a class trip to some national place of interest. We thank our teachers and our principal for their leadership and understanding all through these past twelve years.

Joyce Chambers

CLASS HISTORIAN

1961 — Class Will

The Seniors of 1961 do hereby will and bequeath as follows: I, Laura Ann Wilson, leave my ability to graduate to Allene Mitchell. I, Tommy Watson, leave my ability to grow hair to Mr. Herrod. I, Patsy Atchison, will my studious ways to Lillian Seales. I, Joann Atchison, will my cuteness to Jackie Ingram. I, Walter Haigler, will my shuffle board ability to Mr. Herrod. I, Burean Huff, leave my "perfect" walk to Wayne Traywick. I, Bobbie Lawrence, will my dependable ways to Linda Ousley. I, Charles Irby Harrison, will my ability to do guess work in chemistry to Gene Higginbotham. I, Bill Latham, do hereby will my "gift of gab" to Mr. Lind. I, Betty Ann Rasberry, will my joking ways to Bobbie Dean Stough. I, Howard Graham, will my ability to get along with people in Marion to Mr. Kelley. I, William Davis, leave my ability to keep my hair neatly in place to Dick Hall. I, Joyce Chambers, will my olive complexion and brown eyes to Linda Klinner. I, Dorothy Chapman, will everything that I own or possess that has not been borrowed or stolen from me except, Tommy Watson, to Martha Jo Adams. I, Jackie Edwards, bequeath my cheerleader suit to Janice Shanks. I, Linda Chambers, will my ability of going to the office at least twice a week and still graduate to our followers in the 8th grade. I, Sarah Nell Fergueson, will my sweet disposition to Annie Jean Haigler. I, Henry Ed Perry, will my unnecessary roughness in football to John Wayne (Hercules) Smitherman. I, Mason Harris, will my scorekeeping ability to Ed Clapp. I, Roy Carter, will to James Hathcock, the hope that the senior girls of 1962 will think he is as cute as the senior girls of 1961 think I am. I, Marie Ratliff, do hereby leave behind my ability to make A's in my senior year to Margaret Wilson. I, Evelyn Short, will my long hair to Sue Haigler. I, Martha Jo Mitchell, will my ability to stay at Maplesville High School for 12 years to Coach Haggard. I, Faye Riffe, will my State Homemakers Degree to Roddy Sansom. I, Joseph Bearden, will my ability to get along with Coach Haggard to Jesse Harris. I, Bobby Harrison, leave my ability to play basketball to Bobby Chambers. I, Betty Moore, will my title "Most Courteous" to Betty Jackson. I, John McAfee, will my ability to get on the All-State Football Roster to Ed Clapp. I, Carolyn Harrison, will my DAR Good Citizenship title to my sister, "Duke." I, Buddy Goff, will my height to Eddie Wooley. I, Johnny Thomas, will my ability to be voted the most valuable back on the football team to Ronnie Smitherman.

The above statements were made before me and duly sworn to be the express desire and wishes of the Seniors of Maplesville High School on this day in the year of One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Sixty-One. I do hereby affix my seal and signature as Class Lawyer for 1961.

Senior Class Play - "That's Our Boy"

CLASS POEM

- - - by Howard Graham

When we started there were plenty but now there is only twenty. Twenty out of plenty - How many is plenty - Oh, fifty or so I suppose
Well, that's the way it goes.
We're 31 in number and 12 years dumber, we've picked up a few as you can plainly view. In the third we were birds, and you can bet we were heard. That, my friends, was the year we took our first trip. It also was the last. We went to the dairy, and before it was over, they wished we had been in pens and the cows in school. You know what - we never found or heard a sound from that chocolate milk cow. In the fourth, we came forth, and won a tick-tock. You know a clock. So where is the clock, in the fourth, of course. Globe, thou art gone forever, so I lift my head high and give a sigh and say good-by 'cause it's forever in the fifth. High School, Rocks and Knocks, that's all we got. We were far from sad I mean like glad to get on higher ground where the hair is thinner and dinner comes slower. When we finally passed Mr. Kelley, Mr. Kelley passed us. That's right, more rocks and knocks. Through rain, sleet and snow the ball must go on. That was Mr. Haggard and boys were we raggard. In football we were first, in basketball second. If you can think of anything to rhyme with that it must be at. Oh boy, sip-sip, a senior trip. What? Oh, foo! guess who? Test, what pest, true or false, heads or tails, High School. Eight Ball in the side pocket, that's pool, you fool. Hey, oh boy, A senior day, Yeah, oh well, we knew he would say no Senior Day. To the seniors of future years, watch your ears. They're cutting them close this year. Now you can take that for what it's worth or now you can bear that in mind. Well, I'm your class poet - Now you know it.

RESOURCES

TO ITS YOUTH

As new graduates, you are about to pursue further education in college or assume directly the responsibilities of the business world. We at Belcher Lumber Co.--with the help of our neighbors--are busily growing timber and converting it into products that bring substantial income to scores of communities. Whether our activities concern you directly--or just indirectly --we congratulate you on your accomplishment and wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.
