Introduction of speaker - Mr. Walker.

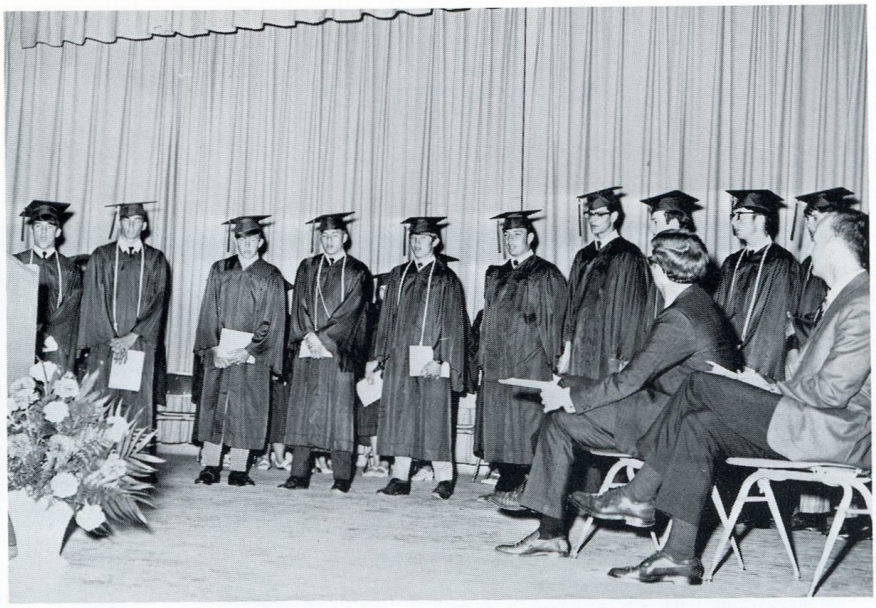

Commencement Speaker - Dr. Charles Tyer, Dean - Judson College

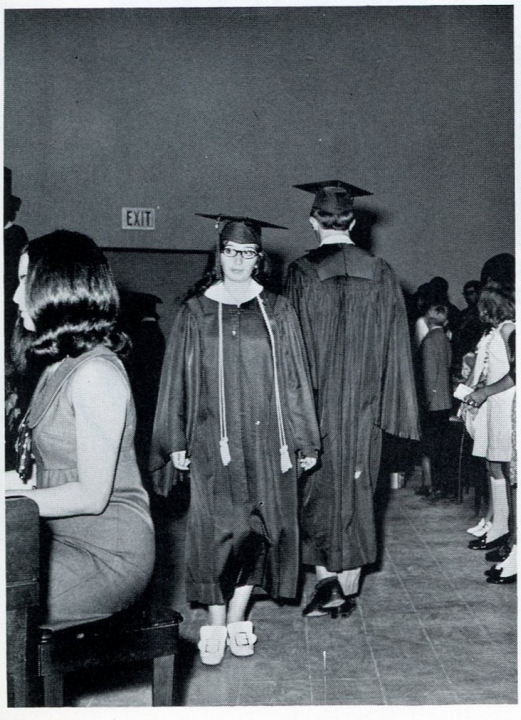

Mary Bearden - Commencement Pianist.

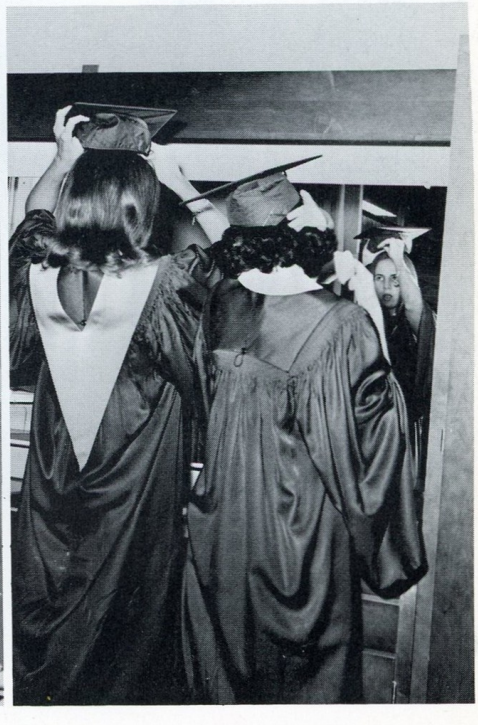

Marilyn receiving valedictorian trophy.

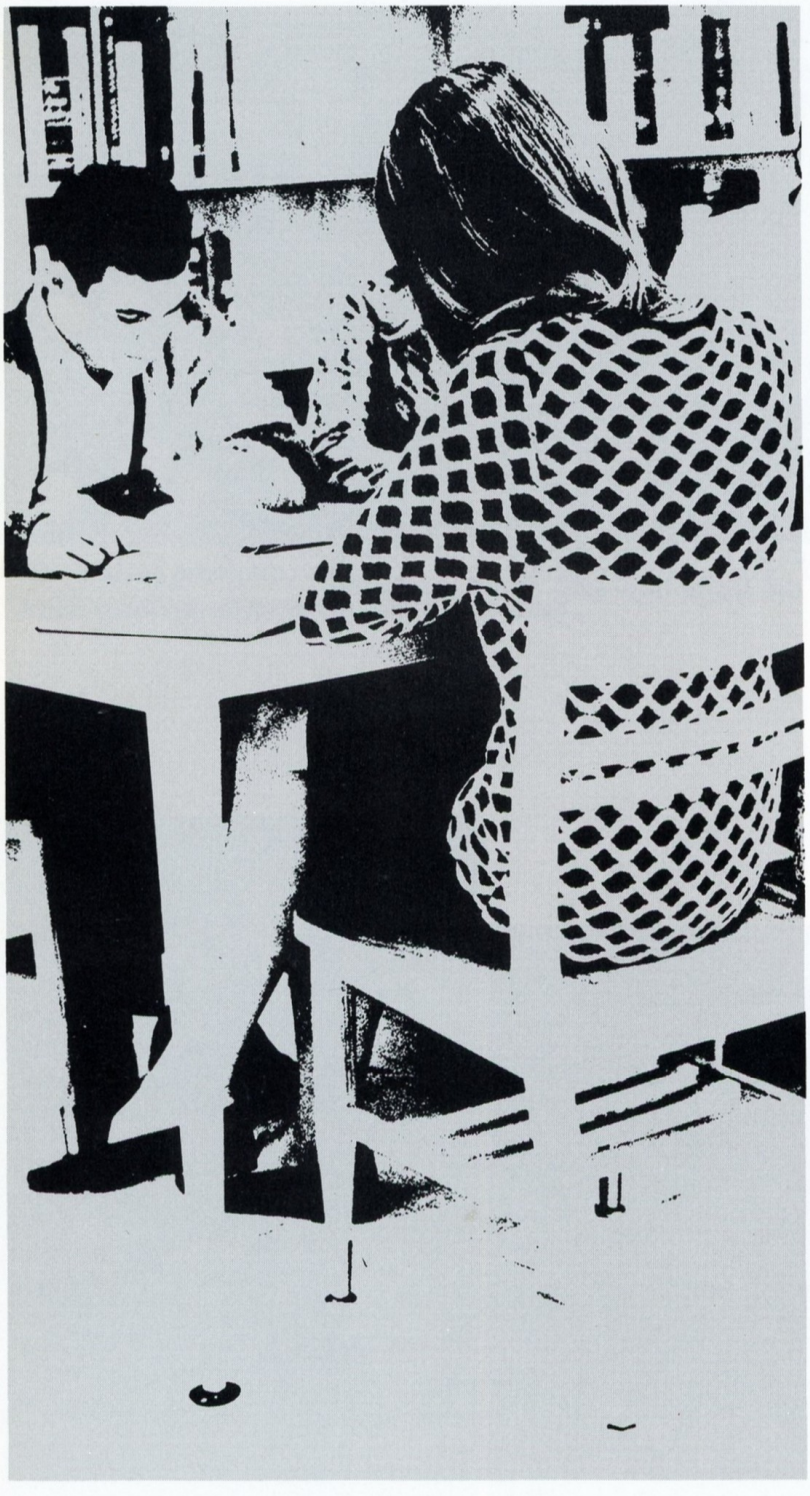

May 22, 1970 - Graduation Day - a day filled with laughter, tears, fun, and memories. Graduation began with the Senior Processional. Alice Atchison, Salutatorian, delivered the first speech entitled, "Challenge for the Future." Vicky Real and Jenni Shanks then sang "Graduation Day," after which Mr. Walker introduced the speaker, Dr. Charles Tyer, Dean of Judson College. Marilyn Latham delivered the valedictory address, the theme of which was "Success." Awarding of the diplomas and honors preceded the singing of "May You Always" by the Senior Class. Finally, the senior boys sang "Auld Lang Syne."

A View of

Homecoming '69 was dampened by rain. Hoping for clear skies all day, the Devils were disappointed as the annual parade began. The football game was cancelled, and Calera was dubbed as a jinx. However, everyone enjoyed the dance where a mod band offered music and fun.

A View of Elementary Spirit

1970 was an election year for govenor in Alabama. The Maplesville Elementary children responded accordingly with speeches, posters, signs, hats, and high spirits. Three bands made up of the students provided entertainment in favor of their candidates. Some of the most popular candidates were Brewer, Wallace, Woods, and Carter. Following the rally, an election was held in which Albert Brewer was chosen as the winner.
